Dr Satish Jain is a surgeon and teacher par excellence renowned amongst ENT and neurosurgery fraternity for being an exceptional faculty not only in ENT but also for anterior and lateral skull base courses catered for neurosurgeons. He is the director of Jain ENT Hospital, Jaipur, India. It has always been a pleasure to have Dr Satish Jain as our esteemed external faculty in various ENT courses conducted at our institute. We invite him, with utmost gratification for the fourth time this time for the 11th Hands-on Cadaveric and Live Surgical Workshop on Endoscopic Endonasal Sinus and Skull Base Surgery.

As always, this will be a great learning experience for all the delegates from ENT and neurosurgery fraternity alike. Kathmandu will have a pleasant weather in November and December which falls in the tourist season so it would be a good opportunity for our international delegates to attend the workshop and visit tourist attractions as well.

Workshop Highlights

- ✓ 2 days' cadaveric dissection demonstration
- ✓ 1-day live surgery demonstration (ESS, skull base cases)
- ✓ Interactive lectures
- ✓ NMA accredited workshop

Venue
